Dear Members of the Council:

I recommend that Annie fill the vacant position on Council. Of the three she is best suited for this town and this position at this important time in our progress.

Annie is personable, warm, flexible (in many ways) alert to the needs of the people with whom she works, and attentive to details. She is non-partisan - which is exceedingly important. And she is a peacemaker.

Annie knows what it is like to work on a committee here (Parks) and to participate with a team (stewardship of the Salish Sea group.) And Annie is a business owner. She would be the only member of council who is in contact through her business with residents of La Conner on a personal level.

Her degree in art gives her a unique quality for La Conner - a town noted for its artists and yet absent of artists in town government. Her business experience, especially having a business getting renovated in the Historic Preservation District is essential. Her work studying the stewardship requirements of the waterways befits the town and the position.

Annie is a perfect fit.

Best regards,
Linda Z Talman
